THE HIGH COMMISSION OF INDIA
India House, Aldwych
London WC2B 4NA

19th January 2012

Dear Sir,

The High Commission is happy to inform you that the India Trade Promotion Organisation (ITPO), the wholly owned apex trade promotion organisation of the Government of India is in the process of selecting an Adviser-cum-Project Management Consultant for developing an integrated exhibition-cum-convention complex at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. The ITPO has sought Request for Proposal (RFP) for the purpose from major infrastructure design and project management entities with previous experience of design/development of convention and exhibition centres.

The ITPO engages in organizing fairs, exhibitions and conventions in India and abroad, and manages the prestigious Pragati Maidan exhibition complex at New Delhi. The Pragati Maidan complex is the largest and renowned destination for holding exhibitions, conventions and other trade promotion activities in India. The Pragati Maidan complex is at the centre of Delhi, with full connectivity and has close access to various government and private sector offices and hotels. The existing infrastructure includes over 60,000 sq mtrs of covered exhibition space with additional open spaces in an area of approx. 123.5 acres. It has a modern air conditioned food plaza, auditoria, business centre facilities to support trade promotion activities.

The ITPO now proposes to redevelop a world class Integrated Exhibition-cum-Convention Complex for carrying out trade promotion activities. The implementation of the project will be in two parts. The first part involves selection of an Advisor cum Project Management Consultant to advise ITPO. The RFP in the form of a tender document may be accessed on ITPO's website www.indiatradefair.com. The last date for receipt of bid is 31st January 2012.
