

The New Silk Road

Ties between emerging markets form what economists call the "New Silk Road" - a $2.8-trillion version of the Asian and Middle Eastern focused network of trade routes along which commerce prospered starting in about the second century.

A high end seminar in London on Thursday 7 April 2011 focusing on the "New Silk Road" hosted and organised by Ashurst.

Please note that places for this seminar will be allocated on a first come first served basis, so please RSVP as soon as possible.
